Narrative:
 Spoke with store manager and she stated she did not want to press charges and only wanted the suspect trespassed. Manager did have a visible right foot boot print on her back that did indicate she was kicked. I went around the area and the direction of travel the suspect took and could not locate. I informed the manager and store employee if they see him again to call back. Manager and store employee are working on obtaining an image to send it to me.

 Narrative:
 Spoke with the caller, Linda Pierce, who was intoxicated and impatient. Linda stated that what happened today involved a female party whose name she does not know, and that she has an HPO against her boyfriend (Patrick James Landis). Linda said that this female party put herself in a fighting stance and said, "Let's go" to her. I checked the order; they have a hearing tomorrow at Brockton court. Linda does not have an HPO against this female party. At this time, there is no violation of the harassment order.
